Re: Announcement of the 2022 ACECC Award Winners

Dear Chinese Institute of Civil and Hydraulic Engineering

On behalf of the Asian Civil Engineering Coordinating Council, I am pleased to inform you that

SUHUA Highway Improvement Project

nominated by CICHE, was approved as the "2022 ACECC Outstanding Civil Engineering Project Award" winner, out of the six winners of the 2022 ACECC Civil Engineering Project Award, at the ACECC 42nd Executive Committee Meeting which was hosted virtually by HAKI in Jakarta, Indonesia, on March 29, 2022. The project was decided to be awarded through a highly selective reviewing and screening process by the Sub-committee on ACECC Awards chaired by Dr. Luh-Mann Chang.

We would like to present the ACECC Outstanding Civil Engineering Project Award to the award winners at ACECC Awards Ceremony during the 9th CECAR (Civil Engineering Conference in the Asian Region). The ceremony will be held from 17:00-18:00 on Thursday, September 22, 2022, at Hotel Taj Resort and Convention Center, Goa, India. Please refer to the CECAR website: <http://www.cec9.com/>.

Please inform the project representative of this announcement. The project representative is highly requested to attend the ACECC Awards Ceremony on September 22, 2022.

Please note, according to the organizing committee, that the project representative needs registration for the conference, or needs to apply for complimentary registration which has already been provided to each ACECC member, and there will be no financial support for travel expenses.

Please also note that your society is requested to present a three-minute video to introduce the awarded project during the 9th CECAR, instructions from ICE(I) will be forthcoming.

We are looking forward to seeing your delegation including the awardees at the 9th CECAR in Goa.

Sincerely,

Dr. Uday P. Singh
